DEAN'S MESSAGE

Again it is a pleasure for me to have the opportunity of saying a few words in your yearbook. The transition from law student to articling student to member of the Bar, is a dramatic one. Essentially to this point you have been concerned almost exclusively with yourself and meeting the goals that you have set. From this point on, in the practise of law, you will be concerned almost exclusively with other people's problems and concerns and, in many cases, your own preferences, convenience, desires and wishes must subordinate themselves to those of your client. It is a demanding life, however, this, of course, is what in essence makes the practise of law so fascinating. It is the people aspect with its ever changing moods and situations which allows you to say each morning "I wonder what will happen at the office today". It is challenging, at times frustrating, and very demanding, but never dull!

It is also important to keep in mind that there is a long tradition in the legal profession in Alberta, of helping the beginner and of showing admiration and respect for the skill and achievements of others, even when these have worked to our own disadvantage. One always admires the professional competence of a colleague. We are children of the adversarial system. However, one of the hardest things for a layman to understand is that his lawyer may labour mightily and do an excellent job on his behalf without becoming enemies with his legal adversary. As Shakespeare said:

> To as adversaries do in law.
> Strive mightily, but eat and drink as friends.

This advice is even more important as our profession expands in that one of the essence of a profession is the collegiality that must remain, if it is to survive as an independent entity.

The final thought I would like to leave with you is that as an individual trained in the law, there is a wide spectrum of opportunities open to you. As Sir Robert Megarry stated in an address at Osgoode Hall:

> . . . There is the wonderful range of lives that are open to you in the law. There is something for everyone. You may revel in advocacy, negotiate great property deals, organize big commercial or corporate schemes, bring peace to troubled families, or practice in a score of other spheres. Or you might, I suppose, simply descend into the deplorable ranks of the mere money grubbing slobs. The range is vast, and some activities soon lead to others.

On behalf of all my colleagues of the Faculty of Law, may I take this opportunity of wishing you success in your profession, good health and the self contentment that comes with a job well done.

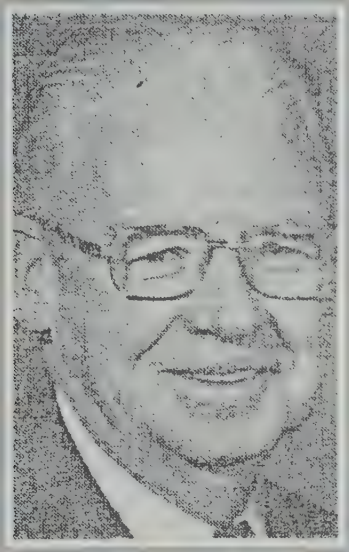
R.H. GRAHAM 1922-1985



R.H. Graham, a key administrator at the law school, died of a heart attack on October 2 at the age of 63.

As administrative officer since 1975, Mr. Graham looked after a diverse range of matters. His chief responsibility was management of the faculty's personnel, but he also helped with preparing budgets, administered all emergency student loans, and handled the logistics for special events.

He was also an effective advocate for law students. Eight years ago he was instrumental in persuading the university administration to allow Friday Afternoon Beer Socials (FABS) in the law building.

Mr. Graham was very well liked, and will be greatly missed.

In our second year since chartering we continue to grow and to promote a higher standard of professional ethics and culture in this law school and in the profession at large.

MOOTS

This year the University of Alberta Law School once again competed in a number of internal, national and international moots.

The Edmonton Bar Association Moot was won by Julian Falconer and William Shores. The runners up were Peter Unruh and Jack Braithwaite. Together with Ken Heintz and Shelley-Mae Mitchell these mooters all competed in the Alberta Challenge Cup. Once again, the University of Alberta retained its possession of the Alberta Challenge Cup thanks to the performances of this year's team.

The Clinton J. Ford Moot was won by Michelle Reeves and Rod Osborne. The runners up were Doris Bonora and Sam Durante. Michelle Reeves and Julian Falconer (replacing Rod Osborne) went on to represent the University of Alberta Law School at the Gale Cup in Toronto.

Dwayne Chomyn and Richard Beamish took the top honours in the Coughlan Cup. Richard Beamish and Michelle Reeves (replacing Dwayne Chomyn) then represented the University of Alberta at the Western Canada Mooting Competition held in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

The University of Alberta Law School also participated in the American Bar Association "Client Counselling Competition". Our school was represented by Jeff Wise, Brenda Davis and Karen Smee at the Northwestern American Regional finals in Missoula, Montana. Both Brenda and Jeff won the internal competition at the University of Alberta.

Finally, the University of Alberta was represented at the Jessup International Moot in Kingston by David Bourdon, Randy Holden, Sharon Crooks and Ian Hamilton. David placed fifth in the ranking of individual mooters in a field of approximately 75 mooters.

Many thanks to all students who participated as mooters or organizers in the many moots conducted.

FIRST DAY BACK PARTY

Once again, the law school social calendar was kicked off by the First Day Back Party. Eager puppies were indoctrinated into the Law School way of life by jaded upperclassmen exhibiting their finest form.

The event took place in the hallowed confines of the "Law House", where amiable hosts Tim Larkin, Jim Chrenek, Trevor Swan, and most itinerant tenants were most accommodating in indulging this and several other Law School soirees. Their hospitality was greatly appreciated by all.
